About this ESG Key Performance Indicators Summary

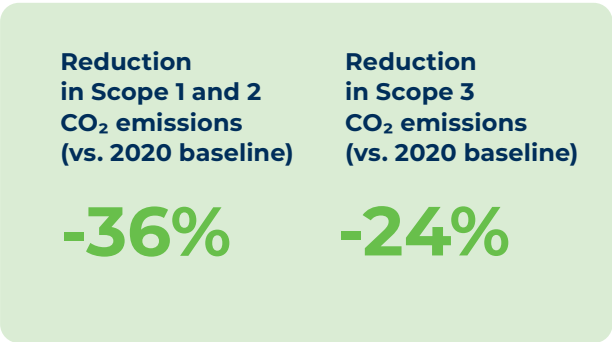

Trivium published a summary to highlight key environmental, social and governance related performance achievements for 2025, providing an early snapshot of progress ahead of the release of our full Sustainability Report later this year.

The environmental data within this summary has been verified by an independent third party, Research Institutes of Sweden (RISE), for the purpose of providing limited assurance. The assurance statement, including a comprehensive list of the sustainability indicators verified, is available here.
